

New Chair and Deputy Chair of ARNECC

ARNECC is pleased to announce it has appointed a new Chair and Deputy Chair effective from 14 March 2025.

Mr Matthew Kamarul, ARNECC's Deputy Chair, has been appointed ARNECC's new Chair. Matthew is the Deputy Registrar General for the Australian Capital Territory and ACT Board member of NECDS Ltd. Prior to commencing his current role in November 2023, Matthew worked for 3 years as an Executive in the ACT Government and almost 6 years as a Deputy Registrar of the ACT Magistrates Court. Matthew was also a practicing Solicitor of the ACT and the Northern Territory for many years.

Joining Matthew is ARNECC's new Deputy Chair, Mr Ahmed El-Ali. Ahmed has been the Director eConveyancing and Deputy Registrar General for the Northern Territory since November 2023. Prior to this, Ahmed was the eConveyancing Manager for NSW Land Registry Services for over seven years.

Matthew and Ahmed bring considerable land titles administration, and eConveyancing experience to ARNECC.

ARNECC takes this opportunity to thank the outgoing Chair, Ms Melissa Harris PSM, for her extensive contribution to ARNECC over many years.

About ARNECC

The Australian Registrars' National Electronic Conveyancing Council (ARNECC) is the body established to facilitate the implementation and ongoing management of the regulatory framework for electronic conveyancing of real property in Australia.

ARNECC is constituted under an Intergovernmental Agreement (IGA) among the State and Territory Governments. ARNECC membership comprises the Land Titles Registrars (or their nominee) from each Australian State and Territory that has entered into the IGA.
