

Appointment of ARNECC CEO

ARNECC is pleased to announce it has appointed an inaugural Chief Executive Officer, Ms Susan Fraser who commenced in this role effective from 22 September 2025.

Susan has held senior leadership roles in diverse Australian public and private sector organisations. Most recently as Australia Post's Chief Audit Executive and at Deloitte Australia where she was an CFO Advisory Partner. A Chartered Accountant by background, she brings extensive governance, compliance, assurance, finance, national standard-setting and stakeholder management expertise gained within highly regulated environments.

ARNECC welcomes Susan and looks forward to her strategic support to help it deliver its vision of a world-leading national electronic conveyancing system that is trusted, effective and accessible. Susan is based in Brisbane.

About ARNECC

The Australian Registrars' National Electronic Conveyancing Council (ARNECC) is the body established to facilitate the implementation and ongoing management of the regulatory framework for electronic conveyancing of real property in Australia.

ARNECC is constituted under an Intergovernmental Agreement (IGA) among the State and Territory Governments. ARNECC membership comprises the Land Titles Registrars (or their nominee) from each Australian State and Territory that has entered into the IGA.
