

New Chair and Deputy Chair of ARNECC

ARNECC is pleased to announce the appointment of its new Chair and Deputy Chair effective from 19 January 2026.

Ms Susheila Vijendran has been appointed ARNECC's Chair after being in the role of Deputy Chair for the last four months.

Joining Susheila, is ARNECC's new Deputy Chair, Mr Bruce Roberts.

Bruce is an executive with over 26 years' experience in the land and property industry who has contributed significantly to the legislative reform of the Australian and Western Australian Land Administration systems. He has deep expertise including strategy, leadership, complex policy development, stakeholder management, business transformation, property law and the Torrens title framework. Bruce has also worked on international land titling and survey projects in Asia and the UAE. He was Registrar of Titles for Western Australia from 2003 to 2012 and was again appointed as Registrar in 2020."

ARNECC takes this opportunity to thank the outgoing Chair, Mr Matthew Kamarul for his extensive contributions to ARNECC.

About ARNECC

The Australian Registrars' National Electronic Conveyancing Council (ARNECC) is the body established to facilitate the implementation and ongoing management of the regulatory framework for electronic conveyancing of real property in Australia.

ARNECC is constituted under an Intergovernmental Agreement (IGA) among the State and Territory Governments. ARNECC membership comprises the Land Titles Registrars (or their nominee) from each Australian State and Territory that has entered into the IGA.
